VIGOROUS OLD AGE.

Mr. J. B. Potter, Centreville, R. I., 80 years old, writes, Sept. 15, 1899,

of PAINE'S

Celery Compound:

"Fifteen years ago I had to give up business on account of very poor health. I was suffering from a number of old chronic diseases and had complete nervous prostration. In 1891 I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and soon found that I was getting the better of my complaints. I continued using it until I was restored to good health. Believing that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, I take the Compound in the spring and fall, and it keeps me well. Paine's Celery Compound has made almost a new man of me, and I have gained twenty-eight pounds of good, solid flesh and blood, thanks to its use."

Strong, vigorous nerves keep the stomach, liver and kidneys active. The ills of old age caused by the breaking down of these great nerve centers are prevented by Paine's Celery Compound.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Oscar Gardner, the "Omaha Kid." and Harry Forbes, of Chicago, fought six fast rounds before the Fort Dearborn Athletic club last night, the bout having been decided a draw. The men fought at catch weights, and Gardner probably weighted 122 pounds, while Forbes scaled about 118. Gardner's hands were apparently in good shape and heavily bandaged, but he forced the fighting in every round, playing principally for Forbes' ribs with his right. Forbes, however, more than held his own, and put Gardner down squareiy in the

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP. Twenty - five Years' Constant Use Without a Fallure.

The first indication of croup is horseness, and in a child subject to that disase it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough ough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hourse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of comes in this broad land and never isappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. Governor Does Not Grant a Thanksgiving Pardon.

Mr. Stauley Discusses a Most Vexatious Question.

HE IS CONSERVATIVE.

Refuses to Issue Any But Conditional Pardons.

Greatest Trouble Is With Politicians With "Flooence."

For the first time in the history of the state a governor has not issued a Thanksgiving pardon to an inmate of the county jail, state reformatory or state penitentiary.

Governor Stanley this year passed on a number of applications for executive clemency but declined to interfere with the judgments of courts and the sentences passed by judges whose only business it is to hear prosecutions,

It has been the custom in years past for the governors of all parties to issue a special pardon to some prisoner-on Thanksgiving day, As a result Gov-ernor Stanley was pressed in several ernor Stanley was pressed in several quarters to take such action but he refrained from so doing.

The pardon case which the governor has the most trouble in dealing with is the one which is presented and pushed by politicians who, failing to get an office, take this means of seeking rewards for their political services. The cases pushed by lawyers are very few because the governor will pay no more attention to a lawyer's presentation of the case than he does to the outline presented by the friends or relatives of the condemned persons. In many letters to the executive, poor people express to the governor the idea that they are too poor to employ a lawyer. A characteristic reply to this, from a recent letter of the governor follows:

"You do not need a lawyer. Your case will receive the same attention when it is taken up by mail at is would were you here to present it in person.

Representations are made concerning destitutions in families, all of which I doubt not is true. But this is one of the unfortunate things in the annals of crime; the penalty is not inflicted upon the prisoner as it is intended to be, but the real suffering comes to the man's family.

"The husband or son or father is ta-

"if evidence is presented showing that a man is being untuly punished or that there are mitigating circumstances I am willing to do what I can to correct injustice, but in the majority of cases, in fact in nearly all of the cases which are presented to me I cannot interfere."

And these are the reasons why the governor's office contains a large number of applications for pardons which have been recently refused.
